Hey Will,

Great talking with you yesterday! Here is the substance of what was told to me by a young, influential pastor [REDACTED]

He told me that either late 2014 or early 2015, he along with 20+ other young, influential pastors were brought to Alpharetta. They had to leave their phones outside of the conference room and from what I understand, they had to either verbally or in writing sign an agreement that they would not post anything about the meeting. Kevin and David then came into the conference room and "basically told us, 'we know your state conventions suck, but just hang with us because change is coming'". He did not tell me who else was in that meeting.

I hope this helps.

Blessings,
